Double Trouble Tour No Trouble At All

Written by Jacob

July 13, 2006

KNOXVILLE, TN—Bandit Lites is the lighting provider for this summer's Lynyrd Skynyrd and 3 Doors Down "Double Trouble Tour." The June 23 show at Trump Taj Mahal was filmed for broadcast on VH-1. The lighting design is a collaboration between long time Skynyrd LD Steve Owens and 3 Doors Down LD Matt Mills. Tour Managers Steve Voudouris and Conrad Coriz oversee the tours' operation.

Each band has a different and distinct look due to clever masking, drapes and truss movement between sets. While Skynyrd is more of a theatrical old school look, 3 Doors Down is a straight ahead 2006 rock look. Both Owens and Mills have also programmed their shows to give the audience the most bang for their buck from a shared system.

The tour spent a week at Starwood in Nashville fine tuning the show before they hit the road. The equipment utilized includes 3 Grand MA consoles, AC Lighting Colorweb, High End Turbo Cyberlights, High End Studio Beams, Martin MAC 2000's, the new Coemar LED PARs, and Thomas Pixelines.
